

Society

Continued from Page One.

Cullum, of 24 Twenty-second street northwest, are spending the week-end in Philadelphia, where yesterday they attended the Army-Navy football game.

Mrs. W. Macchelli and daughter Virginia, will spend Thanksgiving in Baltimore with Mrs. Lyons.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Straubinger, of 1321 Fairmont street, are at the Hotel Rudolf, Atlantic City.

Rear Admiral J. D. Adams and Mrs. Adams have as their house guest Miss Charlotte Lund.

Mr. Lester Marx has returned from Baltimore, where he went to attend the wedding of Miss Mildred Levy and Mr. Milton Gundesheimer.

The Assistant Secretary of State went over to New York yesterday to join Mr. Huntington Wilson for the week-end. They will return to the Capital on Monday morning.

Miss Dorothy Kinkaid, daughter of Commander T. W. Kinkaid, U. S. N., now on duty at Annapolis, Md., is the guest of Miss Jessie Willis, 219 S. street.

Mr. A. W. Greely, Jr., after completing a two years' course in the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, has accepted a position in the engineering department of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad, with headquarters at Philadelphia. Gen. Greely and Mrs. Greely have arrived in Washington from their country place at South Conway, N. H. Miss Greely, who is now the guest of her cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph NeSmith, in Lowell, Mass., will return to this city very soon. Miss Rose Greely has opened a studio at a rooming house on Massachusetts street, where she will have her own mountings for many of the souvenirs and previous stones she has gathered in her journeys abroad.

Mrs. Truman Newberry has arrived in Washington, and is at the Grafton before opening her house in Sixteenth street, where she will be joined by Mr. Newberry and Miss Newberry very soon.

Capt. and Mrs. W. A. Craig, of Plymouth, Mass., and the week-end guests of their cousin, Mrs. Walter N. Weston, Capt. Craig is one of the promoters of the Cape Cod Canal and its boats.

Miss Ida Well, of the Gibraltar, is spending several days in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Levy and daughter Flora are expected in Washington from Berlin, where they have been residing for the past three years. They will be the guests of Mrs. Gans, of Columbia road.

WEDDINGS-ENGAGEMENTS

Announcement is made of the marriage yesterday of Mrs. Emma Maddox Thompson and Mr. Robert Sears Bowersett. The ceremony, which was very quiet, took place at the family home of the bride, "Oak Hill," Marshall, Va.

Judge and Mrs. John Purman Briscoe have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Lucy Lee, to Edwin Forney Moore Knox, U. S. N., Wednesday morning, November 23, at 10:30, at St. Paul's Church, Frederick, Md.

Invitations have been received in this city for the wedding of Miss Carmel Egan and Mr. Gabriel Ambrose O'Reilly, which will take place Saturday, December 2, at Copenhagen, Denmark, at St. Ansgar's Church, at 10 a. m. The American Minister and Mrs. Egan will entertain at breakfast after the ceremony at the American Legation. Mr. and Mrs. O'Reilly will be at home after January 20, 1912, at the Manila, Manila, Philippine Islands.

Miss Irene Jinglel and Mr. George W. Starlings, both of Georgetown, D. C., will be married December 12. The ceremony will be held at the home of the bridegroom's parents, when only the families will be present. After the wedding the young people will leave for Norfolk, Va., where they will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Harris.

A party of Washington relatives of Mr. Rudolph Max Kauffmann went to Chicago early last week to attend his marriage to Miss Edith Charlotte Willis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey C. Willis, which took place last Wednesday in the home of the bride's parents, at Champaign, Ill. Mr. Kauffmann and his bride are now on their wedding trip, and will be at home at the Dresden, in this city, after January 15. The wedding was a large and beautiful affair at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. Miss Barbara Kauffmann, of this city, sister of the bridegroom, was the maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Miss Helen Gerwin, of Hartford, Conn.; Miss Alice Kerwin, of Neenah, Wis.; Miss Dorothy Cant, of Watertown, N. Y.; Miss Ruth B. Johnson, of Columbus, Ohio; Miss Juliette Scott, of Miss Julie Mattia, of Champaign, Ill. The house was decorated with Southern smilax, palms, and bay trees.

SOPRANO SOLOIST WITH SAENGERBUND.

MME. ALICE MERRITT-COCHRAN,
Who will take part in a concert this evening.

and arbors of green. The guests were received in the drawing-room by Mr. and Mrs. Willis and Mr. Kauffmann and the bridesmaids. Mrs. Willis was gown in pink brocade, draped with lavender chiffon, and carried a bouquet of lavender orchids. An arbor was erected in the living room in front of the large fireplace, under which the bride and groom stood for the ceremony. The bridesmaids and ushers entered first, and formed an aisle through which the maid of honor passed, followed by the bride and her father. The bridesmaids wore white lingerie dresses over pink satin with pink sashes. After the wedding supper, which was served in the dining-room, adorned with bride roses and foliage, Mr. and Mrs. Kauffmann left for Chicago, where they will attend the wedding of Miss Helen Shedd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Shedd, and Mr. Kelsley Coates. Mr. and Mrs. Kauffmann will live at the Dresden in this city, where the latter will be at home Fridays after January 15.

A very pretty wedding took place at Grace Baptist Church Monday evening, when Miss Valer C. Collard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marquis L. Collard, and Arthur C. Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Baker, of Chicago, Mass., were married by the Rev. F. W. Johnson, pastor of the church.

The bride was becomingly gowned in ivory satin, trimmed with pearls, and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley. Mr. Charles Cummings acted as best man and Miss Irma Collard, sister of the bride, as maid of honor. The latter wore a beautiful gown of yellow satin and carried a bouquet of white and yellow chrysanthemums. Messrs. Basset, Hagar, Burton, and Collard, brother of the bride, were ushers. The church was artistically decorated with palms, autumn leaves, and white and yellow chrysanthemums.

Immediately following the ceremony an informal reception was given to the bride and groom by the parents of the bride, after which Mr. and Mrs. Baker left for an extended trip to New England, the bride wearing a traveling suit of navy blue chiffon broadcloth and a black picture hat.

The bridegroom is one of the most popular young men in the Post-office Department. The bride is a teacher in the Grace Baptist Sunday school, and a universal favorite in the circle in which she moves.

Mr. and Mrs. Baker will be at home at their new residence, 709 Taylor street northwest, after December 25.

Miss Eva May Frazier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Frazier, was married last evening to Mr. Joseph Edward Sylvester, formerly of Manchester, N. H. The ceremony was performed in the home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Gail Judd, at 411 Fifteenth street southeast, at 7:30 o'clock by Rev. W. I. McKenney, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church known as Wesley Chapel. The only attendant was Miss Mary J. McKenney, sister of the bride. The bride wore a gown of white crepe de chine and carried an armful of white chrysanthemums. A wedding supper followed. Among the small family party who were present were the bride's parents and her small sister and brother, Grace and Charles B. Frazier; Mr. Joseph A. Sprague, of Alexandria, grandfather of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dolan, Mrs. Nebel, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dolan, Miss Elly Judd, and Mr. H. Galbraith. The bride and bridegroom will make their home temporarily at 411 Fifteenth street southeast.

ENTERTAINMENTS.

Society will have a novelty in the charity entertainment which Mrs. Christian Hemmick, formerly Mrs. Barney, is arranging for the benefit of the House of the Good Shepherd. This will take place at the Playhouse, Monday evening, November 27. The entertainment will be a song-tableau. Eight ancient classic songs will be sung by Cecil Fanning, barytone of New York, which will be illustrated by elaborate pictures. There will be an accompaniment of piano and violin, and there will be one brilliant opening tableau. Only two matrons will be in the pictures—Mrs. Joseph Hoppin, who was formerly Miss Dorothy Rockhill, and Mrs. Preston Gibson, nee Jarvis. Among the young girls who will assist will be Miss Letta Montgomery and Miss Eleanor Reburn, two of this season's debutantes, and Miss Gladys Hinesley, Miss Helen Buchanan, Miss Katherine Britton, Miss Hunt, and Miss Marguerite Barbour, all bachelors last year, and Miss Margaret Perlin, a bud of two years hence, daughter of Mrs. George Howard, and Miss Crooby, the schoolgirl daughter of Mrs. O. T. Crosby. There will be a smaller number of men than women in the pictures, all of which will be classic, appropriate, and artistic to a degree. Mrs. Hemmick is putting her very best efforts on the work.

Mrs. H. A. Seymour, of Connecticut avenue, will entertain at luncheon on Tuesday in honor of Miss Ida Thompson, who will leave Washington very soon to spend the winter in Egypt.

The Naval Attaché of the French Embassy and Viscountess Benoit d'Asy will return to Washington the first week in December, after spending the summer abroad.

Mr. Henry White, former American Ambassador to France, and Mrs. White have arrived in Washington to superintend the finishing touches to their new home in Florida avenue. They are now doing the decorating of the interior of the house and beautifying the grounds.

A promenade concert and dance has been planned for the opening of the annual Christmas sale for the benefit of the Edward Everett Hale Memorial Parish House under the auspices of the ladies of All Souls' Unitarian Church, to be held in the New Willard ballroom on the evenings of Monday, December 11, and Tuesday, the 12th, from 8 a. m. to 10 p. m. The committee in charge is Mrs. Whitman Cross, Mrs. Thomas M. Gale, Mrs. Duncan Fletcher, Mrs. Thomas Woodruff, Mrs. James Hood, Mrs. Werner-Spanhol, Mrs. Grosvenor Dawe, Mrs. U. G. B. Pierce, Miss Newton, and Mrs. Gannett.

The exhibit of specimens of art craft of the American Federation of Arts on view during last week at the Arts and Crafts School, 111-113 New York avenue northwest, came to a close yesterday afternoon, after a most successful week, and the exhibit is being closed. The exhibit included specimens of jewelry work, basketry, pottery, weaving, designing, bookbinding, metal work, and other handmade crafts. Tea was served every afternoon, ladies of the board of officers presiding at the tea and cake tables, and young ladies of the school assisting.

The exhibit was visited by Mrs. Cuno H. Rodolph, Justice and Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Francis Loupy, Mrs. Frances E. Maguire, of Rochester, N. Y., Mrs. Thomas L. Casey, Miss Eleanor W. Rawson, Miss Helen Walcott, Mrs. Fred G. Calkins, Mrs. D. E. Ward, Mrs. C. C. by Miller, Mrs. Hollis Chadwick, Mrs. P. B. Howden, Alice Willard Boyd, Mrs. Richard K. Tyler, Miss Estelle M. Watta, Mrs. S. B. Burgess, Alva Hiddle Foster, Sarah B. Swaine, Mrs. W. Owen Gardner, Mrs. A. S. Gardner, Dr. and Mrs. T. A. Poole, Mrs. Quincy Blakely, Mrs. H. A. Smith, Mrs. A. A. Birney, Mrs. Sarah K. Lane, Miss A. A. Lane, Mrs. W. Irving Chambers, Miss Bertha O'Toole, Mrs. Theodore W. Richards, Mrs. J. P. Stewart, Mrs. M. Greer, Miss Louise Donnelly, Mrs. S. M. Newman, Mrs. James H. Moser, Mrs. Frances M. Gale, Miss May E. Townsend, Miss Margaret M. von Herrmann, Mrs. E. P. Van Riper, Charles Ashford, Sarah A. Brock, Mrs. C. C. Cora, Miss Merriew, Capt. W. Irving Chambers, U. S. N., Mr. and Mrs. Victor Minder, Marguerite Eustis, Miss Evelyn Malcolme, Mrs. B. P. Ward Brown, and Mrs. Bryan H. Morse, Mrs. Allyn K. Capron, Miss Helen Day, Miss Dorothy Harman Dawson, Mrs. H. Livermore, Miss Virginia Lyle, Mrs. C. C. Cora, Eleanor Reynolds, Miss Landis, Miss Augusta Mordecai, Mrs. W. F. Willoughby, Miss Maude Bronson, Miss Virginia Blunt, Mrs. A. W. Greely, Miss Alva Downing, Miss Helen H. Wilson, Mrs. H. H. Pulling, Miss Kate Montgomery Dabney, Miss Edith Hoyt, Mrs. C. Hauge, Miss Charlotte Cresson, M. S. Higgins, U. S. N., Mrs. D. C. Phillips, Mrs. W. B. Gillespie, E. C. Messer, and C. P. Minklerode, of the Corcoran Gallery of Art, and students of the various young ladies' seminaries and colleges.

Every Thursday afternoon between 4 and 6 o'clock the students of the Arts and Crafts School will place their work on exhibition and receive the criticism of the school are: Mrs. H. B. F. Macfarland, president; Mrs. John Jay White, vice president; Mrs. Cleveland Perkins, secretary; Mrs. Ward Brown, treasurer; Miss E. S. Schroeder, director of the school, and the following trustees: Mrs. Charles J. Bell, Miss Florence Chadwick, Mrs. Loughby Chesley, Mrs. Charles Marshall, Mrs. David Fairchild, Mrs. Charles Marshall, Miss Leila Mechlin, Mrs. Cuno H. Rodolph, and Mrs. Norman Williams.

Miss Dorothy Williams, daughter of Col. and Mrs. John R. Williams, has returned to Washington after a fortnight's visit in New York.

Invitations were issued yesterday by Rear Admiral and Mrs. Caperton for a tea, with dancing, at Rauscher's, on December 1st, when they will present their daughter, Marguerite, to society.

Miss Anne Seymour Jones, daughter of Representative and Mrs. Jones, of Virginia, will be among the debutantes of the season. She will be presented at a large tea on January 16.

Mr. and Mrs. Appleton P. Clark, Jr., will be at home informally on Thursday evening, November 23.

Announcement is made by the officers and members of the Housekeepers' Alliance of a tea and sale to be held at the residence of Mrs. H. B. F. Macfarland, 128 Eighteenth street, December 6, from 2 to 5 p. m. and attractive articles are promised at reasonable prices.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Laurence Davis, of the Highlands, entertained a party of friends at the Columbia Country Club Wednesday afternoon and night. Mrs. Davis had a small bridge party in the afternoon, at which only the ladies were present. At dinner the men joined the party. After the dinner the new clubhouse was thoroughly inspected, and the women of the party entertained the men by playing bridge. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Clark Shepherd, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry A. Matthews, Miss Winant, and Mr. Robert Davis.

The informal dance given last month by R. E. Lee Chapter was so much enjoyed by those in attendance that the president, Mrs. Bell Riley, and members will entertain a company at luncheon at the Confederate Home, 132 Vermont avenue, every Wednesday afternoon.

A very successful euchre party was given on Friday evening in Carroll Hall in G street, for the benefit of the new Catholic Church at Gathersburg, Md., for which ground will soon be broken. The Rev. Father George Harrington, who is in charge of that parish, was the guest of honor. There were 100 prizes and about 400 players. Among other amusements offered was a group of clever con songs, sung by Mr. George Harrington, and a musical comedy, "The Musical Comedy," sung by Miss Higgins. The financial success of the party forms a splendid nucleus for the building fund for the church. Every Catholic Church in the city was represented.

The auxiliary committee met at the Florence Crittenton mission November 16, to discuss the program for the day, and also the anniversary of the death of Mr. Crittenton. Many articles of clothing and other necessities were given. After refreshments were served the visitors were shown through the home, the nursing ward, and the regular school. Mrs. Smith, of one of the circles, stated that her church had donated $20 toward a Thanksgiving dinner to be given at the home of the regular school. A luncheon meeting a luncheon was given to which friends and acquaintances were invited.

The Ladies' Auxiliary Association of Adas Israel Congregation will entertain its members and friends at a meeting, December 1, at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon, in the vestry rooms of the synagogue, corner Sixth and I streets northwest. A musical program will be given, and other features will be presented, to which all interested are cordially invited.

An unusually attractive piano recital will be given at the Playhouse, 124 N. street, on the afternoon of Saturday, December 2, at 4:30 o'clock, by Anna Diller Starbuck, a pupil of Carl Reinecke. Mrs. Starbuck gives an illuminating explanatory talk with her numbers. A feature which adds greatly to their charm and interest, and her interpretations appeal strongly to real lovers and students of music. The recital is assisted by Mrs. Edward S. Hale, whose singing was so much enjoyed on Thursday at Mrs. Ten Eyck Wendell's. The recital is for the benefit of the Episcopal Epiphany and Throat Hospital. Tickets are for sale at T. Arthur Smith's.

Mr. and Mrs. Nat Glaeser will give a dinner this evening at their home, the Melton apartment, to Miss Blanche Steimer, in honor of her recent engagement to Mr. Ben Hoffman, of Harrisburg, Pa. Mr. Hoffman is a brother of Mrs. Nat Glaeser. The invited are Mrs. Steimer, Miss Sadie Steimer, Mr. Morton Steimer, Miss Blanche Steimer, and Miss Evelyn M. Glaeser.

The Canton Flannel Society will meet on Tuesday morning, November 28, at 11 o'clock at the home of Mrs. George L. Andrews, 181 Columbia road. All army women are earnestly requested to attend.

The District of Columbia Federation of Women's Clubs, of which Mrs. William E. Andrews is president, will hold its regular November meeting in the parlors of the Fortner this evening, when Maj.

M. Brooks & Co.
G Street's Most Fashionable
Women's Outergarment Store.

The New Store, 1109 G St. N. W.

Special Thanksgiving Sale at the New Store.

If you have not visited the New Store, you should do so Monday. It is a delightful place to shop. A corps of the most obliging salespeople. A large and magnificent stock. Irresistibly low prices will make your visit worth while.

OUR FUR DEPARTMENT.

We only handle Fur Coats, and they are the finest shown in this city. We guarantee a saving of $25 to $50 on your purchase.

Russian Pony Skin Coat, 52 Inches, $35
Handsomely Lined

Exquisite Dresses at a Very Low Price.

We cannot but enthuse over these dresses. They are rich and elegant. We made a fortunate purchase of this stock a few days ago in New York—Street, Evening, or Dinner Dresses, in Chiffon, Velvet, Satin, Crepe Meteor, &c.

Elsewhere you will pay $25 for Dresses like these. Our price $15

Suits at $16.95.

You can't duplicate the value under $30.00 elsewhere. An elegant collection of Suits. Choice of Cheviots, Scotch and English Mixtures, and other desirable fabrics, in the smartest models shown this season.

The Ever Popular Waist Dept.

Will win attention to-morrow with an irresistible special.

$2.98

For Charming Waists in Roman Stripe Chiffon, Net, and All-over Lace. Just a small lot.

Lynch, U. S. A., will give the initial lecture in a series to be given on first aid to the injured to the various clubs in the organization this winter. Action will also be taken on the application for membership in the federation of the Evermay Club, of Georgetown, and the Capitol Hill History Club.

The Sisters of St. Francis and the ladies board of the Georgetown University Hospital have issued invitations for a Thanksgiving eve tea Wednesday afternoon, from 4 to 6. The hospital will be appropriately decorated for the occasion and an orchestra will play. Donations of any kind will be received, as this hospital supports an average of forty charity patients daily, and a large number of free emergency patients are treated every week. Among the officers of the ladies' board are Miss Alice Riggs, Mrs. Milton E. Allen, Mrs. J. E. Gadsby, Mrs. P. P. Mullett, Mrs. Alexander McNeill, Mrs. Fealy, Mrs. Roach, Miss Daly, Miss Gowans, Mrs. Murphy, and Mrs. Gans.

The French Ambassador and Mme. Jusserand entertained a company at luncheon yesterday at the embassy.

Countess von Bernstorff, wife of the German Ambassador, entertained a few friends at tea yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the embassy.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin C. Corning, of Albany, N. Y., arrived in Washington yesterday to be the guests for several days of the latter's parents, Rear Admiral Albert S. Barker, U. S. N., and Mrs. Barker, at their home in N. street. Mrs. Barker will be hostess at a tea on Monday afternoon, and on Tuesday she will entertain a company at luncheon in honor of her daughter and on Wednesday evening Admiral and Mrs. Barker will be dinner hosts.

Society is taking an active interest in the Tech-Central High School football game, which will virtually decide the championship of the District, to be played on Tuesday afternoon, November 23, at Georgetown. Among the box holders are the President, the Secretary of Commerce and Labor and Mrs. Nagel, the British Ambassador and Mrs. Bryce, the Admiral of the Navy and Mrs. Dewey, Representative and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, the Assistant Secretary of War and Mrs. Robert Shaw Oliver, former Senator and Mrs. Alexander Graham Bell, Gen. and Mrs. J. Franklin Bell, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Boardman, Mr. and Mrs. Edison Bradley, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Britton, Mrs. Chapin Brown, Mr. and Mrs. John R. McLean, Mr. and Mrs. Walcott Tuckerman, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Worthington.

CHEVY CHASE.

The committee composed of Walter C. Clephane, chairman; William Law, Edward J. Walsh, Ralph P. Barnard, I. E. Shoemaker, and Charles D. Parker, who were elected by the citizens of Chevy Chase, Md., some time ago to look after their interests in the village, have been kept quite busy, and the committee as well as the citizens feel especially grateful to William Law and Edward J. Walsh for their untiring efforts in securing the rebuilding of the road on Connecticut avenue from the Circle to Bradley lane, as it was through their efforts that the matter was taken up at the Department of Agriculture, with the result that the government, while not only building the road at a slight cost to the citizens, will maintain same without any expense to them.

At the meeting of the Chevy Chase Literary Club the past week, the officers who were elected for the year were: Mr. Clephane, president; Miss Lucy MacKrell, secretary; and Mr. Thomas E. Robertson, chairman of the programme committee. The guests of the evening were: Canon and Mrs. J. W. Austin, Miss Austin, Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Mix, Mrs. MacKrell, and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene E. Stevens. Besides the guests present there were the following: Miss Potbury, Mrs. and Mrs. Thomas E. Robertson, Mrs. Jesse Chester Bowen, Mrs. John L. Higway, Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Parker, Mr. Harry Giovannoli, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence E. Dawson, Mrs. H. Wainwright, Mr. Clift Richards, Mr. C. Hillier, Dr. and Mrs. Samuel W. Mellett, and Mr. George Deland.

The Ladies' Guild of the Chevy Chase Presbyterian Church gave a New England supper and had a Christmas sale at the Chevy Chase library the past week. The money made being to replenish the treasury of the guild. The ladies who had charge of same were: Mrs. Hubert Thompson, Mrs. Kate Dean Owen, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse W. Nicholson, Miss Florence Cagle, of New York City, and Misses Cagle.

Mr. Kenneth D. Cagle, who is attending Lehigh College, will spend Thanksgiving with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Davis Cagle, of Magnolia parkway.

The Misses Stella and Italy Carter, daughters of Representative and Mrs. Charles Carter, of West Lenox street, will entertain a party of friends at their home to-day.

Mrs. Willis D. Hager, of Orange, N. J., mother of Mr. Adolph A. Hoehling, Jr., of Newlands street, who purchased some time ago a lot on the corner of Magnolia Parkway and West Kirk street, contemplates building on same in the early spring.

Mr. Andrew J. Cummings, of East Chevy Chase, has returned to his home from Philadelphia, Pa., where he went to witness the army and navy football game.

Mrs. Eugene E. Stevens, of West Lenox street, who has been suffering from a sprained ankle and has been confined to her home is very better and able to be out.

Miss Latimer is the guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Wilmer Latimer, of Newlands street.

The members of the Chevy Chase Baptist Church have decided to dispose of the present church site and build on a lot which they have selected at Chevy Chase Circle. This decision was reached after they had a donation of $5,000 given them and the promise of $50 a year if

Continued on Page 5, Column 1.

Borden's
"THE HAIR SHOP."
704 Eleventh Street
On Ground Floor.

Exclusive Millinery

In order to make room for an extensive line of Christmas novelties, now arriving, I will sell a SMART LINE OF TRIMMED HATS at $5.00, $7.50, and $10.00.

Such values in fine Millinery not to be had elsewhere at these greatly reduced prices.

Mme. Bramlett,
616 13th St. N. W.
Agent for Goodwin Co.

MR. PLUYM takes pleasure in announcing to his patrons and the public that a half interest in his business has been purchased by Miss Lulu F. Markell, who has been for ten years his efficient assistant. The business will be continued by the partnership under the same name at 1216 Fourteenth Street Northwest.

Mr. Pluym is now in New York attending the Horse Show and visiting the import places. Returning Monday, the 27th, with a collection of the latest models.

INSPECTION AND PATRONAGE RESPECTFULLY SOLICITED.